Mail Forwarding Facts

Make sure your mail moves with you!

1. At least one month before you move mail the enclosed Change of Address Form (PS Form 3575).

The US Postal Service will send a notice to your old address confirming receipt of this change of address order.
The following mail will be forwarded at no charge for the period indicated:

First-Class Mail, Priority Mail and Express Mail:
12 months, unless otherwise requested by mailer

Newspapers and magazines: 60 days

Packages weighing 16 ounces or more:
12 months, locally (You pay forwarding charges if you move outside the local area. If you do not want this class of mail forwarded, contact your local post office.)

NOTE! Circulars, books, catalogs and advertising mail under 16 ounces will not be forwarded unless requested by the mailer.

2. Send the enclosed Address

Notification Cards to the people and businesses who send you mail. You can ask for more cards at the post office.

3. Three to ten days after you move in,

look for your U.S. Postal Service Change of Address Confirmation Letter and/or Welcome Kit with valuable information about your new community.

4. If your move is only temporary,

even if it's just for a season or a semester, notify the post office of your address change with the official Change of Address Form. Be sure to indicate the date on which they should stop forwarding your mail.
